

Tracks:

Imaging	Research update for clinicians	Treatment	Networking opportunities
From the frontiers of clinical science	Hot topics in interdisciplinary research	Satellite symposia	Opening and closing plenaries

Saturday, 5 September 2020

Time		Hall A	Hall B	Hall C
08:00	09:00	Symposium		Symposium
09:15	10:40	Recent advances in vasculitis Cristina Ponte New ACR/EULAR classification criteria for large vessel vasculitis Alfred A. Mahr Impact of new classification criteria for ANCA vasculitis Gunnar Tomasson Impact of patient reported outcomes (PROs) in ANCA vasculitis	Imaging in the spondyloarthropathies Mikkel Østergaard Imaging of the spine and sacroiliac joints in axial spondyloarthritis - assessment of structural lesions and clinical implications To be confirmed Imaging of the spine and sacroiliac joints in axial spondyloarthritis - assessment of inflammatory lesions and clinical implications Jürgen Braun Imaging as a diagnostic tool and outcome measure in axial spondyloarthritis - lessons from the last two decades Désirée van der Heijde Imaging as a diagnostic tool and outcome measure in psoriatic arthritis - lessons from the last two decades	Sustainability and priority setting in health care Stefan Siebert Rheumatology and health economics in developing countries: Experiences from Tanzania Ivar Sønnebø Kristiansen Cost-effectiveness of anti-rheumatic drugs – should the choice of treatment be based on price alone? Tore K. Kvien Biosimilars in a global perspective
10:40	11:00	Coffee break
11:00	12:30	Closing plenary Merete Hetland Collaboration across borders: Experiences and results from the NORD-STAR trial To be confirmed Big data and artificial intelligence in rheumatoid arthritis - a Nordic approach to real life precision medicine Espen A Haavardsholm Introduction of future SCR president and venue for the next congress
12:30	13:30	Lunch		